Passenger trains arrive and leave Reynoldsville as follows:

Table with columns for Eastward, Westward, and Sunday trains, listing train numbers and times.

A Little of Everything.

Williams for shoes. Punxsutawney fair this week. Zinc and grinding double the wear. The school vacation will soon be over. West Reynoldsville public school begins Monday. Mrs. J. H. Hughes is visiting at Shannondale, Pa. Fred Miller and wife went to Kittanning yesterday. A number of new buildings are now being erected in town. Sixty new families will move to town in the next two weeks. Excursion to Punxsutawney fair over B., R. & P. to-morrow. Rev. J. C. McEntire spent Sunday at Cherry Run camp meeting. Edward and Laura Elder, of Beechtree, visited in this place over Sunday. Mrs. Charles Witter, of Ridgway, visited her parents in this place this week. George W. Stoke is building a buff-colored brick dwelling house on Mabel street. Samuel Simpson, of Prescotville, had his left foot badly cut with an ax Monday. Two fellows were put in the lock-up Saturday night for being drunk and disorderly. Bob Clark and son, Ira, of DuBois, spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. S. M. Rhoads. The seats for the school room in West Reynoldsville town hall are being put in this week. Probationers will be received into full relation in the M. E. church next Sunday morning. A Northern Central R. R. engine is pulling one of the passenger trains on the Low Grade. Have you had your children vaccinated yet? Remember the vaccination law will be enforced. Latest styles in shoes at Johnston & Nolan's shoe parlors. Call and see shoes and get their low prices. The Reynoldsville Hardware Company has a large advertisement on the 8th page of THE STAR this week. The Reynoldsville Building and Loan Association sold $1,800 at monthly meeting Monday evening at a good premium. The ladies of the Clonian Club drove to DuBois last Wednesday afternoon and took supper at the National Hotel. A Belgian named Joyce, who worked at the tannery, died Thursday and was buried in Catholic cemetery Friday forenoon. A number of Mrs. Jane Brisbin's neighbors gave her a birthday surprise Monday. Mrs. Brisbin was 77 years old that day. If the weather is favorable a number of young people from this place will have a corn roast at Benjamin Kline's this evening. An interesting letter on the Paris Exposition, written by Prof. G. W. Lenkerd, will be found on the first page of THE STAR this week. If you want a first-class bicycle at a third-class price, come in. We have a few left that we are going to sell before the next ten days. The price will do it. Hall, Barton & Co.

H. A. Bonnett, of Henderson township, was thrown off a bicycle a few days ago and had his left shoulder bone broken. E. A. Ferrin has rented the Ayers property on Main street and will move his family from Philadelphia to Reynoldsville next week. John Cottle went to Harrisburg Monday to attend the Knights of Pythias Grand Lodge as a representative from the Reynoldsville lodge. Sixteen Reynoldsville people attended the Royal Arcanum picnic at Curwensville last Thursday. The rain at train time doubtless kept some people home. The A. V. R'y pay car made its last trip over the Low Grade Division last week. Next month the P. R. R. pay car will distribute the money to employees. One knitting machine is now in operation in the Reynoldsville Woolen Company's mill at this place and four more of the same kind of machines have been ordered. Eight-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gray died Tuesday morning. At 10.00 p. m. Monday the baby took ill with cholera infantum and the next morning the cherub died. The Ancient Order of Hibernians and a number of invited friends will picnic in Frank's Park this afternoon and evening. A dance in the pavilion will be one of the features of the picnic. General Superintendent W. H. Myers, Division Superintendent Thomas A. Roberts, and J. B. Buchalew, civil engineer of P. R. R., passed over the Low Grade Division on a special train Thursday. The 27th Annual Grangers' Interstate picnic exhibition will be held at Williams Grove, Pa., August 27th to September 1st. This promises to be the best exhibition ever held at Williams Grove. The glass blowers held a picnic on the ball ground Monday evening. The Keystone band furnished music. The ground was illuminated with Chinese lanterns. The storm interfered somewhat with picnic. Mr. and Mrs. Abram Provost, of Philadelphia, visited the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Phillips, on Jackson street, the past week. Mr. Provost is auditor in the P. R. R. Broad Street Station, Philadelphia. Our gas ranges, besides cutting the heat in the kitchen down three-fourths, will save enough in gas bills in a year to almost pay for themselves. Don't take our word for it. Ask some person that has one. Hall, Barton & Co. An excursion will be run from Reynoldsville to Punxsutawney to-morrow, Thursday, August 23rd, on account of the Punxs's fair. Train will leave at 6.45 a. m. Returning will leave Punxsutawney at 7.40 p. m. Fare for round trip $1.00. The following Reynoldsville people attended the harvest home picnic at Oak Ridge, Pa., last Wednesday and Thursday: J. O. Johns and wife, Arthur Clawson, Walker Adam, Clara Siple, Grace Clawson, Mabel Siple, Margaret Davis, Mary Williams, Anna Shaffer and Minnie Keck. Coon hunting is now in order. Parties not familiar with the sport should remember that a kettle, butter and salt are among the weapons necessary for a successful hunt, and the place most likely to find the animals is in a nice grove adjoining a good corn field.—Marion Center Independent. If you were to stand on the bank and throw dollars into the creek, people at the best would think you were foolish, but you are doing just as foolish by trying to burn gas in a big iron cook stove, for you are wasting dollars every month that you could save by using a gas range. We have them at all prices. Hall, Barton & Co. George L. Spear, a graduate of Duff's Business College, Pittsburg, who is bookkeeper for A. Z. Myers & Co., brokers and real estate agents on "Wall street," Pittsburg, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Spear, on Worth street. George, who is a promising young man, holds a good position with the above firm. The members of the Women's Relief Corps have adopted a plan to furnish entertainment for the Corps in alphabetic order, for example, all the ladies whose names begin with A furnish entertainment one night and the next meeting night it's the B's turn. Last Friday night was the B's time and they varied the program and served ice cream and cake, much to the surprise of the other members of the Corps. John, five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ramsey, died at 7.00 a. m., Wednesday, August 15, and was buried Thursday afternoon in the Reynoldsville Cemetery. John was the youngest member of the family and was a bright little fellow. John and three other members of the family had diphtheria, but all got through that dread disease and the little chap got bright disease, which ended his short career. Mrs. Ramsey has been very ill since her son died. Mr. and Mrs. Ramsey have the sympathy of a host of friends.

Wrist Broken. Elizabeth Witter, of Ridgway, aged about three years, who was visiting her grandmother, Mrs. H. M. Iseman, on Hill street, fell Wednesday evening and broke her left wrist. Large Orders In. Hopkins' big saw mill has received a number of large orders to be filled as soon as possible. The planing mill work is being crowded so hard that the mill will have to run night and day to fill orders from that department of the plant. Director Coming. D. C. Reardon, of New York City, one of the directors of the North Pennsylvania Traction Company, will be in Reynoldsville the latter part of this week. It is probable that Mr. Reardon will be accompanied by Joseph A. Vandegrift, of the Vandegrift Construction Co., of Philadelphia. Tried Gypsy Life. Frank S. Hoffman and family and Samuel M. Whittaker and family returned Saturday from a five weeks' trip to Ridgway, Kane, Warren, Corry, Chautauque, N. Y., and other places. They traveled in covered conveyances, gypsy style, and slept in a tent which they carried with them. Samuel, who is an expert horse jockey, traded horses occasionally. It was a delightful summer outing. Petition for Borough Granted. For six or seven years the Falls Creek Herald and a number of citizens of that hamlet have been petitioning the court of Jefferson county to grant them the privileges of incorporating their town into a borough, but their petitions did not find favor with the judge and four were refused, but the fifth petition, which was presented last week, was granted and now Falls Creek is to become a borough. Corn and Chicken Dinner. To-morrow, Thursday, August 23rd, a chicken and corn dinner will be served in Schugars' grove near Emerickville, under the management of the ladies of the Emerickville M. E. church. Proceeds to be used to pay off the debt on the church. It is expected that a large crowd will be present and the ladies are making preparations accordingly. Besides having plenty to eat, a good social time is anticipated. Tannery Shut Down. There have been no hides shipped to the tannery at this place since early in July and as each department has been worked out it has been shut down until it has reached that point that the fires have been drawn, and after this week the entire plant will be shut down until hides are shipped in, and when that will be no one seems to know. From seventy-five to one hundred men are thrown out of work by this shut-down. Visiting Ireland. P. J. Ward, constable of West Reynoldsville borough, left here Friday to visit the land of his nativity, Ireland. He sailed from Philadelphia Saturday afternoon on the "Belgenland" steamer. Mr. Ward came to America in 1868, thirty-two years ago, and this is his first visit to Ireland. He came to West Reynoldsville fifteen years ago and is now a highly esteemed, honored and substantial citizen of that borough. Mr. Ward discharges his duties faithfully as constable and if he gets after a law breaker he always gets him. Mr. Ward expects to be gone about six weeks. Shirt Caught in Shafting. Andy Greychak, boss weaver in the Reynoldsville Woolen Company's mill, had a narrow escape from instant death last Thursday afternoon while at work in mill. Andy was standing on a step ladder trying to put a belt on when his shirt sleeve caught on shafting, and in a jiffy he was lifted off the ladder, his shirt was torn off him and he fell to the floor. The only thing that saved his life was that his shirt was an old one and was easily torn. Andy's left breast, left arm and neck were badly blistered by coming in contact with the shafting. It was a close call. Harry W. Eason Dead. Harry Eason, aged four years and one month, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Ward Eason, of this place, died at Oakland, Juniata county, Pa., Sunday afternoon from bilious dysentery. Mrs. Eason and Harry were visiting relatives at Oakland and he and several other children ate some green grapes. They all became very sick. The others got better, but after ten days of intense suffering Harry died. Mr. Eason was called to Juniata county last week and was at his son's bedside when he expired. The little white casket containing the mortal remains of Harry was brought to Reynoldsville Monday noon and at 7.00 p. m. a short funeral service was held at the home on Grant street, conducted by Rev. Perry A. Reno. Tuesday morning the body was taken to Brookville and buried in the family lot in the Brookville cemetery. Harry was a near neighbor of the writer and we were well acquainted with him and will miss his "hello Mr. Stephens"—he couldn't say Stephenson. He was a bright little fellow and had a sweet disposition. Mrs. M. L. Bresse, mother of Mrs. Eason, and Will Bresse, of Pittsburg, came here to attend the funeral. Mrs. Eason will likely go home with her mother to-morrow and remain with her a few weeks. Zinc and grinding double the wear.

SURPRISE FOR MR. RUMSEY. Low Grade Employees Give Him a Handsome Present—His Wife Not Forgotten. Spencer B. Rumsey, who was superintendent of the Low Grade Division of A. V. R'y up until August 1st, serving thirteen years in that capacity, was given a very pleasant surprise last Thursday evening by the employees of the Low Grade Division. An effort was made to get Mr. Rumsey away from home for a short time in the evening, but that failed and the next best thing to do was to have the paymaster, who was in town that evening, and several employes call on Mr. Rumsey, get him into the library and have some music, while 25 or 30 other employes of the road went into the dining room at side entrance, carrying a handsome and costly rolled top, quartered oak writing desk with them. Mr. Rumsey was requested to step into the dining room on some pretext and the surprise was as complete as if he had gone up town. Assistant Trainmaster D. M. Dunsmore, in behalf of the employees of the road, presented the writing desk to Mr. Rumsey. Mr. Rumsey thanked the employes for the handsome gift and the hearty and fraternal spirit in which it was given. Mrs. Rumsey, who had been taken into confidence several days before the present was given, was enjoying the surprise on her husband immensely, when W. S. Stone said he had a few remarks to make and when he got through with his presentation speech, Mrs. Rumsey was as much surprised as her husband had been, for she was presented with a rose and chrysanthemum style cut glass water set and silver tray, with her name inscribed on tray and when presented by employes of Low Grade Division. There was a silver plate on the writing desk which was engraved the following: "Presented to S. B. Rumsey by employes of the Allegheny Valley, Low Grade Division." Most all, if not all, the employes of the Low Grade contributed towards getting the presents, no one subscription amounted to over $1.00. Mr. and Mrs. Rumsey have their household goods packed and will move to Wilkinsburg the first of September. During their stay in Reynoldsville they have made many warm friends who are sorry to see them move away. Idleness Not Necessary. A notice in the postoffice yesterday morning to the effect that there was an opening at the silk mill for an experienced weaver and several learners, brought to our mind the fact that the silk mill has proven to be a good industry for Reynoldsville. It is true that most of the employes are young people, yet the mill has given employment, at good wages, to many boys, girls and young women who could not be earning money were it not for the silk mill. Over three hundred are now employed at the mill and yet there is room for more. There is no excuse for young people to be idle in Reynoldsville and vicinity if they want to work. The wages are not large for beginners, on account of the loss the firm sustains in the destruction of material while learning, but many of those who have thoroughly learned the work are now making good wages. It is much more honorable for young people to earn their own living than it is to depend upon the parents. If you are out of employment and want to earn money, make application at the silk mill and there is no doubt but that you will secure a position. Try it. Long Life Ended. Mrs. Margaret Goodlander, mother of Mrs. F. K. Arnold of this place, died at the Goodlander homestead, near Salem, Clearfield county, Saturday evening. Deceased was 91 years, 5 months and 12 days old. Heart failure was the cause of her death. Funeral services were held at the Lutheran church in Luthersburg Monday forenoon. The DuBois Courier says: "Mrs. Goodlander, coming to the county in 'early days,' saw developments which it is given to but few to witness. She lived to see a large family grow up and in turn raise families, and her children and great grand children are many. She was connected with some of the best known families in the county, and was known to almost everybody in Brady township." Mrs. F. K. Arnold, Dr. W. B. Alexander and wife, J. B. Arnold and wife, F. K. Alexander and Miss Belle Arnold of this place attended the funeral. Park's Big Stock Co. Every evening last week, including Saturday afternoon, C. W. Park's Big Stock Co. showed under canvas on the vacant lot near opera house. This is a first-class company and they gave good entertainments every evening. They are not only artists in their line, but they are well behaved on the streets. During the heavy storm Wednesday evening there was considerable excitement under the canvas while the storm lasted. Just before the matinee Saturday afternoon 25 tickets were shot up with sky rockets and there was a lively time among the small boys, who were greatly in evidence, when the tickets struck terra firma, to see who would get them. Zinc and grinding double the wear.

Twenty-five Years of Married Life. A large delegation of relatives and friends of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Null met at their home in Sykesville on Wednesday, August 15th, for the purpose of reminding them of their wedding day, which occurred twenty-five years previous to that date. Among the out-of-town guests who tried to make this happy event more pleasant were: Mrs. Rickard and daughter, of Cygnat, Ohio, L. H. Duff, Punxsutawney, Milton Duff and wife, Luthersburg, and H. B. Duff, Pittsburg, brothers and sister of Mrs. Null. The beautiful weather of the day seemed to infuse each one present with a new and nobler life. Those grown in years enjoyed the hospitality of the host and hostess during the day, and the evening was given to the young people whom, it seems, forgot nothing in the way of amusements to remind Mr. and Mrs. Null of the days gone by. During the evening the band entertained the guests with several choice selections of music. The giant drum-major, Mr. Smith, was the recipient of a very handsome present from Mr. Null and also many compliments from those present. After the one hundred guests had disposed of the dainty refreshments prepared for them, they departed for their respective homes feeling that it had been an enjoyable occasion for all present and wishing Mr. and Mrs. Null continued happiness through the remainder of their lives. West Reynoldsville Council Meeting. The town council of West Reynoldsville met in regular session August 14th, with the following members in attendance: A. B. Weed, president, James Orr, Richard Miller, Samuel Sutter and James Shobert. Minutes of last regular meeting read and approved. The report of W. L. Johnston, treasurer, showed a balance on hand of $417.31. G. W. Dempsey, tax collector, reported collecting taxes to the amount of $85.24. The burgess reported a collection of $2.75. After discussing the matter of building sidewalks on Central street as mentioned in the letter of the burgess in which he stated that Mrs. McCarthy and Philip Koehler objected to building the sidewalk because the property holders on opposite side of the street were not required to do so, it was decided that the above named property holders again be notified to build the sidewalk as formerly directed. The bids of W. H. Ford, amount $84.00, and D. R. Cochran, amount $60.00, for painting town hall were read. The Finance Committee stated that the bid of Mr. Cochran was accepted and the work was satisfactorily performed. Bills to the amount of $105.51 were ordered paid. Meeting adjourned. Death from Tuberculosis. William Hogue died at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Hogue, in West Reynoldsville last Friday at 1.40 p. m., from tuberculosis. Funeral services were held at the residence at 2.30 p. m. Sunday, conducted by Rev. Perry A. Reno, pastor M. E. church, and interment was made at Sandy Valley. The deceased was born at Elk City, Clarion county, and was 23 years, 3 months and 13 days old at time of death. Over a year ago tuberculosis made its appearance in William's right knee, and early in February of this year, through the assistance of the Epworth League of this place, the young man was taken to the Medico-Chirurgical Hospital, Philadelphia, for an operation. His right leg was amputated at the hip and he returned home in May feeling very much encouraged and looking well. He was only home a short time until it was evident that the disease was still in his system and finally caused his death. Seventy-Eight Snakes In One. Benjamin Kline, an honest and honored farmer of Winslow township, is authority for the following snake story, which he avers is a positive fact as he helped count the little snakes. At noon Saturday a snake about three feet long was killed near the upper end of Cold Spring Hollow, and in killing the snake the body was almost cut in two and little snakes began crawling out. There were so many little reptiles that those who killed the snake made an investigation and found that there were seventy-eight little snakes, from two to six inches in length, in the old mother snake. Harvest Home Picnic. The Strouse Church Sunday school will hold a harvest home basket picnic in Ludwick's woods, near the brick church, on Thursday, August 30th. Everybody invited, Sunday school children especially. Good speakers will be present and good music will be furnished. Come everybody and have a good time. L. LUDWICK, Supt. Notice to Pupils of the Public Schools. No money will be received for deposit in the public school savings bank on the first Monday morning of the coming term, on account of the registering of pupils, but on each Monday morning thereafter deposits will be received. G. W. LENKERD, Prin. Zinc and grinding double the wear.
